LOCALS.

The best on earth is a Hanan Shoe. J. P. Jones.

WHEN you are in Stanford, don't fail to look through Withers' Furniture Store.

I AM tickled to death with the cash business. Don't ask credit. Ed Wilkinson.

THE Stanford colored nine defeated the Turnersville team 22 to 18 here Wednesday.

STOCK your winter coal in August and you will save money. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR SALE.—Good cook stove and lot of bedsteads, &c., for sale. B. J. Pinkerton, at the college.

THE dwelling of Sam Flitt, near Kingsville, was destroyed by fire, but most of the contents were saved.

OUR School Shoes and Dress Shoes for ladies and gents are the very best made. See them before you buy. J. P. Jones.

READ the Broadhead fair advertisement and make your arrangements to attend the exhibition. Write to J. W. Tate for catalogue.

OUR countyman, Wm. Fields, has sold his stock of general merchandise at Livingston to Hook & Adams, the Mt. Vernon merchants.

THE date of the basket meeting to be given by the Second Colored Christian church, of this place, has been changed from the fourth Sunday in this month to Sunday, Sept. 1.

RED MEN.—All members of Seneca Tribe No. 27, Improved Order of Red Men, are requested to be present at the meeting Monday night. Important business to attend to.

MILLINERY STOCK FOR SALE.—I desire to sell my stock of millinery and will sell or rent the stand I now occupy. The stock is in splendid shape, new and clean. Miss Lizzie Beazley.

FLAMING bills were posted here yesterday telling that "Fighting Joe" Wheeler will be at the Lexington Elks' fair on Thursday of next week. The old hero will meet with a warm welcome.

I HAVE decided to remain in Stanford and will have in a big lot of new goods in a day or so. Call in and see them and bring along that watch or clock that needs repairing. William Hamilton, the jeweler.

CARD OF THANKS.—We extend our heartfelt thanks to our relatives, neighbors and friends for their kindness in waiting on and nursing our dear daughter, Mary. May the dear Lord bless them all. Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cook.

A LANCASTER dispatch says: An ordinance was introduced before the city council to stop the sale of cocaine and morphine by the drug stores, except on specific prescriptions, and then only in cases of actual sickness. The cocaine habit has assumed such proportions as to require legislation to stamp it out.

"THE republicans are kicking like bay steers over my way," said a gentleman from Kingsville to us yesterday, "and a good many say they are going to vote the democratic ticket straight. They don't like the new converts' getting the best offices and a number of them are not going to put up with it," he added. We congratulate the republicans of the Kingsville section on their good sense. They have reason to kick and they should kick.

ARE you making your arrangements to attend the Liberty fair next week? If not, you had better do so or you'll regret it. Besides rings for almost everything, there will be running, trotting and pacing races each day, while on the first day a game of base ball will be played between the Hustonville and Russell Springs teams. The premiums are unusually liberal this year and some of the best stock in the State is expected to contest for them. Everything is about in readiness for the fair and everybody is looking forward to having a big time.

WE were so full of the Hustonville fair last week that we forgot to mention the reunion of the Peyton family at Peyton's Well, hence the following from Dr. Ed Alcorn in the Advocate: "The reunion of the Peyton family, at Peyton's Well, was not largely attended, owing to the fair. This reunion was inaugurated several years ago by Dr. Frank Peyton, of Stanford, to celebrate his birthday, but as he is a bachelor and growing gray he is getting tender on the subject of how many he has had. His eye is as bright, his step as elastic and his hopes of many returning natal days are as strong as 40 years ago. His friends, though, fear that he is passing into the 'sere and yellow leaf,' and he will not realize until in firm, what a deal of good he has done in this world. Here's hoping that many may come to him yet before the final chapter closes.

FOR SALE.—Fresh Jersey cow, subject to register, cheap. J. S. Rice.

WITHERS sells good Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, Springs, Rugs, Carpets, &c.

Have you got one of those $1 Fountain Shirts? Price now only 79 cents. J. P. Jones.

WE will fill your coal house during the month of August cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Residence on Upper Main, diagonally opposite the College. Inquire of E. C. Walton.

W. W. WITHERS has the Furniture, Carpets, Matings, Wall Paper, Picture Frames and the low prices.

TO FARMERS.—I am still in the milling business and am better prepared than ever to serve the people. Fair dealing to all. Morris Fred, Proprietor Farmers Roller Mill.

THE Danville Daily News, gotten out by Vernon Richardson and Archie Dunlap during the fair, is a cracker jack. The young men are to be congratulated on their enterprise.

PLEASED.—Mrs. J. S. Owsley, Jr., who is back from a stay at Crab Orchard Springs, speaks in the highest terms of the delightful time she spent there. She is loud in her praise of the host and his excellent wife. There are 100 or more guests there now and they compose as pleasant a crowd as ever gathered.

DANVILLE FAIR.—Rain cut the crowd at the Danville fair to some extent on Tuesday, but Wednesday and yesterday the weather was fine and people were on hand from the "salt works." A magnificent lot of horses and other stock is on hand, the rings are all hotly contested, the outside attractions are numerous and interesting and all in all the present is the best fair ever held at "Little Britain." Following are some of the premiums Lincoln county people won: Trio of fox hounds, W. L. Dawson; sky terrier, J. C. Lynn; trio of brown leghorns, Mrs. A. E. Hundley; Pekin ducks, Mrs. A. E. Hundley; blackberry wine, Mrs. W. B. McRoberts; fancy saddle mare, any age, W. S. Drye; gentleman rider, J. C. Lynn; prettiest baby, one year old, Isabella Givens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Givens; Virgil B. Reid, son of F. Reid, second. Out of four shows of vehicles, Bruce & Bright, the Danville buggy people, won three. The following gentlemen had herds of shorthorns on exhibition: J. M. Hall, Paris; Wm. Warfield, Lexington; E. K. Thomas, Bourbon; and W. H. Durrett, Crittenden county. Richard Helm, Stout, son of John B. Stout, of Danville, won in the baby ring under one year old. Its mother is a sister of Mr. C. V. Gentry, of this place. A great many Lincoln county people were at the fair yesterday but we were not "in it" much in getting blue ties. Jesse C. Lynn being about the only fortunate winner. He won in the walking ring. E. F. Carpenter got his magnificent Dignity Dare yearling defeated for the first time. The sports backed Mr. C.'s entry at 10 to 1. The hotly contested roadster ring yesterday was won by Harris, of Lexington, with Goddard, of Mercer, second.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. J. W. Hagio's subject next Sunday is, "The Responsibility of the Present."

The Congregationalists will establish an academy at Tar Ridge, Men-fec county.

Revs. Partin and Smith are conducting an interesting meeting at the Pleasant Point church.

Rev. R. H. Hobbs has commenced a protracted meeting at Hebron, assisted by Rev. F. T. McIntyre, of London.

The Rev. J. F. Claycomb, of Campbellsville, has accepted a call from the congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Pembroke.

There will begin at Moreland on the 11th a camp meeting in a tent, conducted in the main by Rev. Newson. It will run along for some time, doubtless.

Dr. David Kennedy, a minister of Kingston, N. Y., dropped dead there while addressing a taxpayers' meeting. Apoplexy was the cause of death. He was 65 years old.

A protracted series of meetings will begin at the Christian church on the 11th. The preaching will be done by Rev. R. G. Frank, of Philadelphia, who is well known in this section of Kentucky, having spent his early boyhood and youth in Garrard county, during the ministry of his father, Rev. Joseph Frank, to the Christian church at Lancaster. Mr. Frank is a brilliant and pleasing speaker, a forceful and able teacher, a devout and earnest Christian, whose life is truly dedicated to the saving of souls and strengthening of spiritual life. The minister and congregation are working zealously in preparation for this meeting and are confident of much good resulting therefrom. They extend a cordial welcome to all who care to be better men and women, and earnestly solicit the co-operation of all Christian people, who sincerely pray, "Thy Kingdom Come." May this revival result in the strengthening of every church in our community, the deepening of spirituality, the quickening of brotherly love, the purification of morals, the deeper reverence for law and the more earnest purpose to love and serve the true and living God.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Ex-Gov. Bradley will formally open the Elks' fair at Lexington Monday.

It was charged that the men entered the home of Jerry Singleton, taking him therefrom and administered a severe beating.

Capt. John A. Geary, reported as having sold his interest in oil wells for $197,000, has not done so. The Somerset Oil Company, composed of Capt. Geary, O. H. Waddle, R. Kalker, C. A. Sussner, J. F. Rooche, Dr. George M. Reddick and others, has given an option to the Standard Oil Company on the Bertram wells and leases for $500,000, but no deal has been made.

BLONDELL AT HIGH BRIDGE.

The famous swimmer and noted lifesaver will give one of his wonderful Aquatic Exhibitions on the Kentucky River close by the beautiful High Bridge on the Queen & Crescent Route on Sunday, Aug. 18th. A grand view can be had from the surrounding hills. One of the greatest water effects ever offered to the public will be the "Blow-up of the Maine." A handsome and costly model of the once beautiful ship will be on exhibition on local freights passing through all points between Ludlow and Lexington, Tuesday, Aug. 13th; South of Lexington on Wednesday, Aug. 14th; points on the F. & C. Ry., Aug. 15th. Don't fail to see it. Capt. Blondell will accompany the car bearing the model.
